

8 September, 2011

Dear Artist:

I am writing to invite you to exhibit your work at the ARISIA 2012 Art Show. Arisia will take place from 13-16 January, 2012 at the Westin Waterfront Hotel in Boston. Hugo Award winners Phil and Kaja Foglio are Guests of Honor this year, and at least 2,600 science fiction and fantasy fans will be in attendance.

In addition to displaying an extensive collection of works by our Guests of Honor we will mount other exhibits and coordinate events, including docent tours, to draw traffic to the Art Show. One example is an expanded Artist & Author Alley which you may want to check out. We will also be sharing space in the Galleria with the Dealers' area and the ConSuite.

We will once again feature a Quicksale option, proxy bids and noregistration bidding; however, we will return to the live auction as we will now space for an auction room. You will be able to pick up unsold art on Sunday afternoon and evening (exact hours TBA). In recent years we have had checks available for some artists by Monday morning, and the rest go out within two weeks of the show.

Please visit <http://2012.arisia.org/ArtShowReservations> to reserve space in the Art Show.

Be sure to register by 15 December 2011 to guarantee space.

If you are unable to attend ARISIA '12 in person, an agent may represent you, with written authorization from you. Mailed in art will also be accepted. There is an additional handling fee of $15 per artist for mailed in art.

High school students and full time college art students get one free unit of space. Please contact artshow@arisia.org for more information about this and other student programs.

If you are interested in participating in other parts of Arisia you can reach our Programming staff at program@arisia.org, our children's programming at fasttrack@arisia.org, and our Artist Alley staff at alley@arisia.org. If you have any questions regarding the art show please contact me at artshow@arisia.org.

Sincerely,

Buzz Harris
